It's that time of year when the days are longer but still at times not long enough to get everything done in the lead up to Christmas.

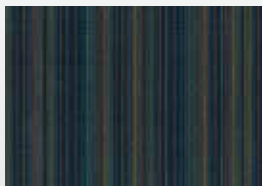

A reminder to all our South Island customers that Canterbury Anniversary is on Friday the 17th of November. So our Christchurch based warehouse and office will be closed on that day.

We are very happy to be able to advise you about the extension of the warranty on striped acrylic canvas. See the information below.

Recasens Striped Canvas Range

Our acrylic awning canvas from Recasens now comes with a 10 year limited warranty – this is your assurance that these fabrics will not become unserviceable due to colour or strength loss through normal usage and sunlight exposure.

Did you know?

The average UPF rating of our acrylic canvas range is 80. With the darker colours a slightly higher rating and lighter colours slightly less. The UPF (ultraviolet protection factor) value measures the level of protection a fabric provides from skin damaging UV A and UV B rays. Like sun block lotions, the bigger the number, the better the protection.
